

Bloomington 101
Fall 2016 Session
Application

The Bloomington Citizens' Academy, Bloomington 101, is a great way to learn about your community and engage with local government. This ten-week program covers a wide range of topics focusing on various City of Bloomington departments from Police and Fire to Parks, Recreation and Cultural Arts, and it includes hands-on activities, facility tours and more. Participants will learn a lot about how the City works and have fun along the way.

The program will run for ten Thursdays, September 1 through November 3, from 6:30-8:30 pm. Participation in Bloomington 101 is capped at 20 members per session. More about the program and applying:

- This is a free program.
- Participants must be 16 or older.
- Anyone (16 or older) may apply. Preference will be given to Bloomington residents and business owners that submit their application by Monday, August 8, 2016 (random selection from applications received by that day).
- To be considered, applicants must agree to attend at least eight of the ten classes.

Name: _____

Business (if applying as a Bloomington business owner): _____

Address: _____

City/Zip Code: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Why are you applying for Bloomington 101? _____

If selected, are you able to attend at least eight of the ten classes? _____

Please submit your application to Nora Dukowitz via email to ndukowitz@cityblm.org or via traditional mail to 109 E. Olive St., Bloomington, IL 61701.