

Davis Lodge

Facility Rental Information

More information at: www.bloomingtonil.gov/davislodge

The original Davis Lodge was dedicated in 1932 in honor of H.O. Davis, editor of the Daily Pantagraph. The site of the lodge overlooks the widest expanse of Lake Bloomington and has been the site of various concessions and restaurants over the years. The original lodge had two huge fireplaces, which required 50 tons of stone to construct. These fireplaces remain and provide a warm atmosphere for rental guests. This beautiful log facility is now available for rent to the public for weddings, receptions, reunions, graduations, business meetings, and other functions.

The facility is heated and air-conditioned in order to accommodate guests throughout the year. The lodge has a large, central meeting room inside, with a capacity for 100 people, a kitchen facility with plenty of counter space, and a commercial refrigerator and stove. Two separate screened rooms and a large patio overlooking Lake Bloomington. A large, covered barbecue grill and plenty of picnic tables are available outside. The facility is fully accessible. Folding tables and chairs are provided.
