

Call to Order

- Commission Chair Kellie Williams called the meeting to order at 7:31 a.m.

Roll Call

- Commissioners in attendance: Scott Koets, Jesse Smart, Ron Crick, Angelique Racki, Carole Ringer, Kellie Williams, Julia Cozad-Callighan, Jeff Crabill. Guest: Vicki Tilton

Staff in attendance

- Ann-Marie Dittmann, Eric Veal, Jim Mack, Bob Mahrt, Tricia Stiller

Approval of Minutes

- Minutes from June 14 approved

Introduction of New Commissioner

- Kellie introduced Jeff Crabill to the Commission. Jeff, an attorney with State Farm, has participated in both Bloomington 101 and the Multicultural Leadership Program. He was officially appointed to serve on the Cultural Commission by Mayor Renner on June 25

Old Business

- Kellie thanked Bob for his presentation to City Council to amend the Commission's name and scope of work. The Commission serves as an advisory body and can make recommendations for projects, etc. All final decisions are to be made by City Council.

New Business

- Discussion around developing consistent criteria for a cultural district. Examples from other states to be gathered and included as part of meeting notes.
- Downtown First Friday, July 6 is a good networking opportunity for commissioners to visit artists in their galleries, and exchange thoughts, ideas, and information. Identify ways the Commission can best serve the creative community.

Meeting adjourned 8:22 a.m.

Next meeting: July 12, 7:30 am