

Bloomington 101
Fall 2019 Session
Application

The Bloomington Citizens' Academy, Bloomington 101, is a great way to learn about your community and engage with local government. This ten-week program covers a wide range of topics focusing on various City of Bloomington departments from Police and Fire to Parks, Recreation & Cultural Arts, and it includes hands-on activities, facility tours and more. Participants will learn a lot about how the City works and have fun along the way!

The program will run for ten Thursdays, September 5 through November 14, from 6-8 pm (there is no class on Thursday, October 31). Participation in Bloomington 101 is capped at 25 members per session. More about the program and applying:

- This is a free program.
- Applicants must be 16 or older.
- Anyone (16 or older) may apply. Preference will be given to those on the winter/spring 2019 wait list first, followed by Bloomington residents and business owners that submit their application by the deadline (random selection from applications received by the deadline).
- To be considered, applicants must agree to attend at least eight of the ten classes.
