Executive Director Comments

This was an event offered free to the public as part of the Cogs & Corsets Steam Punk events. It was partially funded by sponsorships. Actor Joshua Kane provided two distinctly different, but equally powerful and spine-tingling performances of his Gothic Tales of horror, humor and intrigue. Approximately half of the audience attended both shows and the later show was attended by many who came from a distance or worked late or were Vendors at the event, so were unable to attend an earlier show and were grateful for a late show opportunity. This was part of the Cogs and Corsets Steam Punk weekend event, which was attended by over 1000 individuals from across the region including some from Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin and Kentucky.
