

Bloomington 101
Winter/Spring 2020 Session
Application

The Bloomington Citizens' Academy, Bloomington 101, is a great way to learn about your community and engage with local government. This ten-week program covers a wide range of topics focusing on various City of Bloomington departments from Police and Fire to Parks, Recreation & Cultural Arts, and it includes hands-on activities, facility tours and more. Participants will learn a lot about how the City works and have fun along the way.

The program will run for nine Thursdays, March 19 through May 14, from 6-8 pm. Participation in Bloomington 101 is capped at 25 members per session. More about the program and applying:

- This is a free program.
- Applicants must be 16 or older.
- Anyone (16 or older) may apply. Preference will be given to those on the fall 2018 wait list first, followed by Bloomington residents and business owners that submit their application by the deadline (random selection from applications received by the deadline).
- To be considered, applicants must agree to attend at least eight of the ten classes.
