Previous Release from 3/8/2022

Homicide Investigation

Bloomington, IL - On Tuesday, 3/8/2022, at approximately 7:45 p.m., Bloomington police officers were dispatched to an apartment complex in the 1000 block of Four Seasons Road for a 911 call for service. Upon arrival, officers learned that three people had been shot inside one of the apartments.

Officers called for the Bloomington Fire Department to respond. A 35 year old adult male was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital with critical injuries consistent with a gunshot wound. At 8:30 p.m., he was later pronounced deceased by the McLean County Coroner's Office.

A 32 year old adult female was also transported by the Bloomington Fire Department to St. Joseph's Hospital with critical and life threatening injuries that were consistent with a gunshot wound.

A 6 year old child was fatally injured by gunfire and later pronounced deceased on scene by the McLean County Coroner's Office.

Identification of the deceased will not be released until the next of kin is notified.

Preliminary investigation suggests that the homicide occurred during a domestic violence incident inside of the apartment, however, the circumstances regarding the homicide are still under investigation.

Chief of Police Jamal Simington said, "I want to give my sincerest condolences to the family of those who were impacted by this tragedy. Our department is conducting a thorough and complete investigation. We also request that anyone with information to contact Detective Jeff Engle at 309-434-2371 or at JEngle@cityblm.org or contact Detective Tyrel Klein at 309-434-2366 or at TKlein@cityblm.org."
