It was moved by Commissioner Hoover and seconded by Commissioner Latson that the minutes of February 11, 2015 be approved.

Audience Participation

A Citizen addressed the Commission to state that there was a good meeting at the YWCA about seniors. She stated that Mr. Mike Donnelly conducted the meeting.

Case Summary Report

The Commission was presented with a summary of Case No. 010YTD10-14. Staff requested a no probable cause finding. Commissioner Hoover motioned that the case be dismissed. Seconded by Chair Smith.

Contract Compliance Report

Staff stated that the threshold for a contractor or vendor had been changed in the Human Relations Ordinance from $5,000 to $10,000.

No further report presented.

Old Business

The Commission discussed the Commissioner's goal setting for the year. Jackson was asked to send out possible dates for the Commission to consider.

Jackson asked if the Commission wanted to give out back packs this year at Cultural Fest. She indicated that Cultural will be held at the ISU Student Center. It is scheduled earlier this year and will be in July.

It was agreed the Commission would continue to give students back packs.

The Commission will again sponsor Juneteenth.
